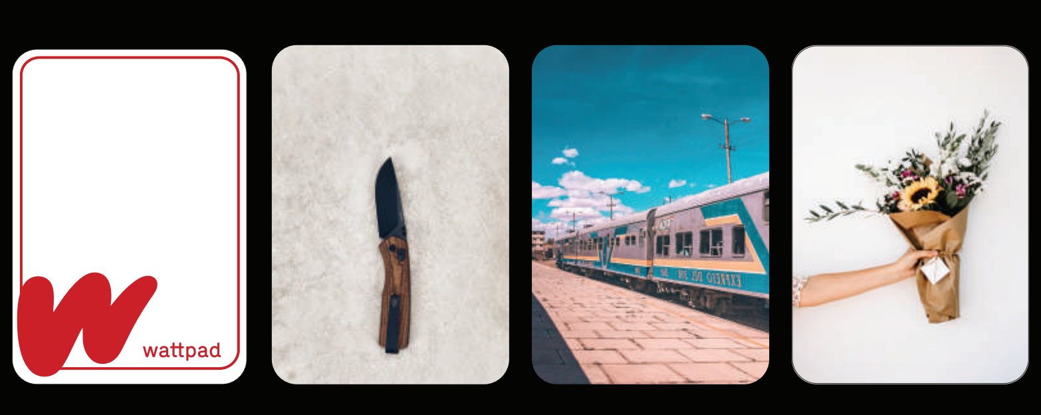
INNOVATIVE MEDIA

PLAYING CARDS



Imagine you have been given these four cards, now you can arrange or you can jumble those cards as per your needs to create your story. Create your Story by connecting following visuals on your card.But, the story which u make must be of particular category as horror, mystery, romance, etc.

This innovative media can pitch a door for those writers who have the potential of writing & creating stories.
Nowadays, not every person can be on wattpad.
But, Wattpad is in every person as a person can imagine, admire and create innumerable stories.

STORY BINGO

Choose any 5 images from above story bingo.
Connect those 5 images and create story which belong to some category.
Do this process 4 more times and you are done with your bingo story.
For eg : colours, remote, a girl, dollar, coke.
In the same order you have to create a story. And who completes its first that player wins.

writer Once upon a time there lived a bird and a dog with their owner. They had a good chemistry and bonding with eachother. They played together, roam together, sing together, think alike, yes, the dog couldn't fly and feel the touch of the sky but through bird's experiences he could touch and feel the ecstasy of touching the sky.
No one could separate them. But once, on a fateful day, a businessman came and offered money and bought both by offering money.
Though they are separated, they are still waiting eagerly that god would make them together once again.

Interested writers write stories according to their perspectives by connecting three given visuals

MAKE A STORY USING ABOVE IMAGES

This media also plays same role as cards do.
As Wattpad is an interactive app,
It carries lot of activities for their user and also for non users.
Three photos on single post will be posted through wattpad account, and making stories through connecting those visual will result in various stories and that can also give us the idea of peoples perspective, their response and other potential writers will be known and they will look forward to get into this app.
